SEEDS OF RESILIENCE CONVENING 2018 PLANNING COMMITTEE

CRITERIA FOR PLANNING COMMITTEE
- Deep understanding of local/regional/national/global context in relation to seeds and agricultural biodiversity
- Strong and diverse networks
- Ability to provide leadership on this issue and mobilize interest
- Ability to manage their own institutional interests and think systemically
- 10-15 people, with representation from each of the following categories: global civil society organizations, regional civil society organizations, multilateral agencies/institutions, private sector/seed associations, researchers, donors

ROLE OF PLANNING COMMITTEE
- Contribute to framework development
- Support preparation of key inputs and design process for the convening and initiative
- Conduct outreach – with support from the GA – to individuals and organizations in their networks
- Champion process

COMMITMENT
- 3-4 online meetings between February and December 2018
- 1 in person meeting on April 6 in Rome
- Intermittent email correspondence

COMMITTEE MEMBERS
Francisca Acevedo, CONABIO
Alejandro Argumedo, Asociación Andes
Todd Barker, Meridian Institute/Project Consultant
Francisco Chapella, Christensen Fund/Global Alliance for the Future of Food
Szonja Csörgő, European Seed Association
Veronica Fernandez de Castro, Kellogg/Global Alliance for the Future of Food
Emile Frison, IPES-Food/Project Consultant
Nori Ignacio, SEARICE
Jonathan Landeck, New Field Foundation/Global Alliance for the Future of Food
Shantanu Mathur, International Fund for Agricultural Development
Mariam Mayet, AFSA/African Centre for Biodiversity
Pat Mooney, ETC Group
Kent Nnadozie, Plant Treaty Secretariat/Commission
Oliver Oliveros, Agropolis/Global Alliance for the Future of Food
Mary Ann P. Sayoc, East West Seed Company/Board Global Crop Diversity Trust
Ronnie Vernooy, Bioversity
Inga Wachsmann, Fondation Charles Léopold Mayer/Agroecology Fund
John Wilson, Tudor Trust/Global Alliance for the Future of Food

GLOBAL ALLIANCE SECRETARIAT
Lauren Baker, Director of Programs
Ruth Richardson, Executive Director
Zanele Sibanda, Consultant, Operations